A List of Helpful Websites For Genealogy and Local History Researchers

All of the sites listed below offer free access and use unless otherwise noted.

<https://www.ancestry.com/> Subscription service. Contains millions of genealogical records including all US Census.

<https://www.fold3.com/account/> Subscription service. Owned by Ancestry. Great site to research military records.

<https://www.ancestryheritagequest.com/HQA> This site provides access to US Census Records. Originally, this non-subscription access to the federal census records was only available by visiting your local library website. You were required to enter the number on your library card after clicking on the “Heritage Quest” link. (Our local access was exclusively through the Wead Library in Malone - <http://www.cefls.org/malone.htm>) But, it now appears that multi-step process is no longer required. The URL above takes you directly to the Heritage Quest site, allowing free access to all the US Census records.

<http://home.rootsweb.ancestry.com/> Owned by Ancestry. Contains family trees. Good search process.

<http://www.genealogy.com/forum/> Contains message boards by Surname. Great way to ask questions of others.

<http://genealogytrails.com/ny/franklin/churches.html> Contains on-line records of Baptisms, Deaths, and Marriages recorded at St. Patrick’s Church in Chateaugay.

<http://www.nnyacgs.com/> Site of the Northern New York American Canadian Genealogical Society. Tons of links and information.

<http://www.newyorkroots.org/franklin/> Franklin County NY information on the county's history and genealogy

<http://www.usgennet.org/usa/ny/county/franklin1/> A GenWeb network site. More genealogical and historical information about Franklin County.

<http://www.usgennet.org/usa/ny/county/clinton/> A GenWeb network site. Genealogical and historical information about Clinton County.

<https://www.raogk.org/newyork-genealogy/franklin-county/> Includes information about the files available at the Franklin County Courthouse in Malone.

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~frgen/> A project of the Northern New York Tombstone Transcription Project. Contains all recorded burials in the Franklin, Clinton and Essex County cemeteries by town and individual cemetery.

<http://www.linkpendium.com/clinton-ny-genealogy/> More links to Clinton County genealogical and historical data.

<https://familysearch.org/> Comprehensive genealogy site maintained by the Church of Latter Day Saints.

<http://www.tracingsbysam.com/frenchcan.html> Excellent site for researching any French Canadian ancestors.

<http://www.many-roads.com/2009/09/02/filles-a-marier-marriageable-girls/> Site listing the Filles a Marier (Marriageable Girls) who came to early French Canada.

http://www.fillesduroi.org/src/Filles_list.htm#M Comprehensive site listing all the Filles du Roi (Daughters of the King) who came to colonial Canada.

<http://www.fillesduroi.org/src/soldiers.htm> Excellent resource to research the soldiers in the Carignan Regiment who were sent to French Canada to protect the colony.

<http://www4.newyork-genealogy.com/?kw=New+York+genealogy> Links to various NYS historical records.

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~qchuntin/cemetery/> Records of the cemeteries in Huntingdon County, Quebec.

<http://nyshistoricnewspapers.org/> Digitized issues of newspapers throughout NY State including the Chateaugay Record

<http://fultonhistory.com/Fulton.html> Another digitized newspaper site. Contains over 37 million newspaper pages from throughout the United States and Canada.
